EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Richard Lazarus on 01/02/08.

The application has been amended as follows:

- In claim 12, line 7, "pad, characterized in that air flows from the caliper wall into the" has been changed to -- pad, characterized in that air flows through the caliper wall into the--.
- In claim 13, line 2, "an flow through device" has been changed to --a flow through device--.
- Claims 20-31 have been cancelled.
- In claim 35, line 3, " the flow through device" has been changed to --a flow through device--.
- In claim 39, line 2, " the first inlet opening" has been changed to --the inlet opening--.
- In claim 40, line 2, " the first inlet opening, an interior of the piston" has been changed to --the inlet opening, the cavity of the piston--.

2. Claims 15-19 have been rejoined and are allowable.
3. Claims 12-19 and 32-40 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant's argument and amendment have been persuasive and have overcome the rejection based on Fuchs in view of Ross. The claimed invention cools the brake pad or brake disk by pulling air through the wall of the caliper at the inlet, through the cavity of the piston and discharges the cooling air at the outlet adjacent the brake pad in order to cool the brake pad or the brake disk by convection. Fuchs shows the brake system with the cooling liquid cools the brake pad by conduction through an enclosed end of the piston. None of the prior art teaches or suggested the claimed invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Lan Nguyen whose telephone number is (571) 272-7121. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday, 7:30am to 4:00pm.
